- William Westhoven of Parsippany, “The Puddingstone Well” (CreateSpace)

In this contemporary fantasy-mystery novel, music lovers worldwide mourn the alleged suicide of a famous musician while sports fans are shocked by the sudden death of a mercurial tennis champion. Only journalist Jersey Jackson knows these two doomed celebrities shared a mysterious past. In his search for the truth, he uncovers an idyllic village that isn't what it appears to be and finds the secrets of his own birthright.

The title references the purple-colored conglomerate rock that is rare around the globe but common to the Lakeland Hills of northern New
